May Measure Strides With Ort Wells, Bryn Mawr, Delhi and Others-Keene New Leads Winning Owners-Reliable's Great Race-Joe Yeager Going West.

The $10,000 Brighton Derby, one mile and a half, will be run at the Beach next Satur-day. S. S. Brown's Broomstick, winner of the Brighton Handicap and holder of the world's record for a mile and a quarter, 2:02 4-5, established with the light impost of 104 pounds, is the most conspicuous eligible. If he goes to the post, and Trainer Bob Tucker and on Saturday that he would, barring accidents, he will be compelled to pick up full stake weight, something the expert turfmen are anxious to see him do when meeting the best of the three-year-old divi-If Broomstick starts he will probably meet such seasoned colts as Ort Wells, Bryn Mawr, Delhi, Ormonde's Right and others

Ort Wells was considered the champion three-year-old when, after running second to Irish Lad in the Advance Stakes and winning the Commonwealth Handicap, he car-ried off the rich Lawrence Realization Stakes. But in the latter race he showed signs of staleness, which were further increased in the running of the Brighton Handicap, in which he was beaten off, showing neither which he was beaten on showing hether speed nor stamina at any stage of the pro-ceedings. It was for that reason that his owner, John A. Drake, decided to let Ort Wells have a good rest before starting him

Bryn Mawr has not been to the races since he ran third in the Advance Stakes at the Bay. On that occasion he met Ort Wells equal weight and was signally beaten, a world's record for a mile and three furlongs being hung up by the winner, Irish Lad. Mawr is still looked upon as one of the crack three-year-olds, liable to trim any the others at any time under any con-He is essentially a long distance norse and the Derby distance should just suit him. He has won some splendid races this including the $10,000 Brooklyn Derby

James R. Keene's faith in his famous Ben Brush colt, Delhi, still remains firm. Delhi, after winning the Withers and Belmont stakes at Westchester was hailed as an undisputed champion of his age. But he was beaten off after setting a tremendous pace for a mile in the Advance Stakes, and has not been started since. Delhi was troubled with coughing for some time, but it was not a serious ailment and in all probability he will be as fit as Trainer Rowe can make him he goes to the post for the Derby. With Bryn Mawr, Ort Wells or Delhi all sporting silk, it can be readily appreciated that Broomstick has a tack cut out for him that is by no means easy. If all four go the Derby will be a race worth going a long distance to see

Mr. Keene now heads the list of winning wners with more than $70,000 to his credit. Sysonby's triumph in the Brighton Junior Stakes put the millionaire ahead of other including H. B. Duryea and E. R. belhi, with the Withers and and Veto with the second part of the Double Event, have won the bulk of the the Double Event, have won the Dulk of the prizes. Sysonby, according to Mr. Keene, is the best two-year-old since the days of Domino. The Melton colt is a candidate for the Futurity and the Saratoga Special and his career will be watched with unusual nterest. Re is royally bred, his sire, Melton, being a Derby winner, while his dam, Op-

Joe Yeager is going West for a vacation. He has not been making book for several days, but he has been playing them successfully from the ground. It is estimated that he won nearly $75,000 on Friday and Saturday, although he was behind on the ger will have his horses shipped to Saratoga, where he will get into harness again with a vengeance. His star jockey, Hildebrand, will remain here to fill his engagements at the Beach, where he has ridden seventeen

The bookmakers who make a practice of putting odds on their slates and then refusing to accept wagers are getting themselves disliked. They have been pulling off this trick for some time, but the players have tumbled to the little game with a vengeance. There are one or two bookmakers who resort to this scheme in order to bring the prices in other books where their commissioners can get the money down on sure things before the unwary chalkers know what is in the wind. There are tricks in all trades, and this is one of them, but when a layer puts up a price against a horse it would seem to be eminently proper for him to accept wagers. If he does not want the money, why display odds unless it is to bunco those who are in the habit of copying the prices that he chooses to chalk?

Before the stewards of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association make a final decision in the case of T. E. Mannix, whose cause of the alleged form reversal of Neponset, it might be advisable to take into con-sideration the somersault which enabled Flying Buttress to win the jumping race or

While John A. Drake has been attracting much attention with his heavy betting this year, it must be said that the racing public has more confidence in the running of his horses than in that of other stable which are in the haibit of making themselves felt in the betting ring. Drake believes that if a horse belonging to him has no chance to win he should not be sent to the post, and on this basis he feels that his horses are all good betting propositions.

In addition to the uncovering of Sysonby, the Brighton meeting has produced four other rattling good two-year-olds in Mr. Leene's Von Tromp, C. T. Patterson's Humo-Alvey's McChord and Sydney Paget's Zonquil, an of whom will be heard from in

The Western Jockey Club has officially notified the new track at New Orleans that it cannot have dates for a winter meeting. This will probably mean a turf war unless the row in the Crescent City is patched up.

The stake events to be decided at Brighton this week are the Sunshine, for two-year-olds, for which St. Bellane, Waterside, Glorifler Blandy, Song and Wine, Cairngorn and others are eligible, to be run to-morrow; the Glen Cove Handicap for three-year-olds siz furlongs, on Wednesday: the July Stakes, three-year-olds and upward, one mile and a sixteenth, on Thursday; the $7,500 Venus Stakes, for two-year-old fillies, and the Brighton Steeplechase, to be run in addition to the Derby on Saturday.

More Driving Honors for C. K. G. Billings. CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 17. -C. K. G. Billings yesterday afternoon put another feather in his cap when he won the amateur pacing honors to pole when Prince Direct and Hontas Crooke paced a mile in 2:13. Had Hontas Crooke not tired out during the last quarter, the mile would have been close to 2:10. After Prince Direct and Hontas Crooke paced the mile in 2:18, he brought out Mazette and Babe Allerton to beat 2:20. This team was erratic and tried to run away. They broke just after the word was given on the first score, but on the second store went away fast, but broke at the half. Still the mile was made in 2:18½. Mr. Billings announced that he would go after the professional record if he could get Mazette to pace to pole with Prince Direct. Mr. Billings made the masteriy drive of his life when in the seventh event he defeated Jack Wilkes with Imogene. Billings outdrove Deversur and beat Jack Wilkes at the wire each time.

TO-DAY'S CARD FOR BRIGHTON. Waterboy Will Retire if He Cannot Win

James B. Haggin's Waterboy will start in an overweight handicap, one mile and a quarter, at Brighton Beach this afternoon, and his trainer, A. J. Joyner, says that if the Watercress champion cannot defeat such cattle as Brigand, Lord Badge, Spring, Lady Potentate and others, to all of whom he must give big weight, he will be retired forthwith. Waterboy worked over this distance on Saturday in 2:10% and pulled up perfectly well and sound, having recovered fully from the effects of his grifelling defeat in the Brighton Handicap. There was, naturally, much pleasant rivalry between the winning owners, and this led to a series of brushes between the ribbon winners: Princess Pique, 2.14%, driven by Thomas Leahey, and Jeannette, 2.20%, with M. F. Loughman up. The crowd recalled that Mr. Loughman's fast mare had beaten Swift, 2:07, over the course early in the season and realized that she was the only trotter present that ranked with Mr. Leahey's unbeaten champion.

The first brush was a keen contest from start to finish. Jeannette was a trifle the faster in getting away, and she looked to have her head in front when the end of the iron railing was reached. In the final rally Princess Pique outtrotted her rival and won by a neck and shoulders. The second brush went to the brown mare by a length. Earlier in the day Princess Pique won several easy victories, the best being when she finished in front of the bay trotter Freeland, 2:17%, driven by David Goodman.

The trotters Gray Billy, driven by William Scott, and James Shevlin, 2:13%, with Henry Phillips up, had three nice brushes, the former winning two and the latter the third. David Goodman sent Freeland easily finished in front. H. A. Pierce's bay trotter Upton and George Leveen's chestnut trotter Sunbeam had three brushes, and Upton won them all. Alexander Newburger sent the pacer Better Luck to join, and he finished in front. Later Better Luck won a brush from the pacer Cassarone, driven by Thomas Flood.

Startle Wilkes had speed enough to hold his own nearly to the finish, but in the final drive he was carried to a break each time and beaten. After being beaten by Startle Wilkes, Dyreen showed first how good he was by defeating the fast pacer Cassarone, driven by Thomas Flood.

James Murphy, behind the champion pacer, Don Derby, 2:04½, was in a class by himself. No one made bold to challenge his supremacy, but the chestnut pacer Rexie, driven by Alexander Harley, made a nice finish with the Don and pleased the crowd. Rexie had been started against Don Riley, 2:07, and the trotter David B. 2:06½, and when these two made a break and fell by the way side Don Derby came along and Rexie was sent to join him. Later David B had a brush with the bay trotter Royal Prize, owned by E. E. Garvan, and won, when Royal Prize hit the wagon and made a wild break.

The sport was in full swing when George Huber arrived behind the bay trotter Red George, 2:27½. He was soon in action with his persistent rival, H. A. Pierce driving Upton, and the two had two brushes, Red George winning. Mr. Huber also finished in front of George Leveen, driving his blue ribbon pacer King Tom, 2:19½, and Thomas Flood behind the bay pacer Cassarone gave the crowd the closing brush of the morning. King Tom was an easy winner.

The tie in the thirty-six hole handicap between Gliman P. Tiffany, Powelton, and O. Woodward, Marine and Field Club, was played off yesterday at Apawamis. The play-off was at eighteen holes and again resulted in a tie. Then they agreed to play off again at nine holes, when Tiffany proved the winner. On the first nine holes Woodward had a little the better of Tiffany going out in 42 to his opponent's 44, but on the homeward journey Tiffany settled down to his work and came back in the bogey of 41 to Woodward's 48, doing the course in 85 to 89. Tiffany had a handicap of 6 and Woodward had 10, which caused a net score tie at 79.

SUCCESSFUL SQUADRON RUN. Nineteen Racing Yachts in Eastern Y. C. Event-Conditions Fluky.

ISLE OF SHOALS, N. H., July 17. - The second squadron run of the Eastern Yacht Club, from Gloucester to the Isle of Shoals on its annual cruise was most successful, nine-teen yachts taking part in the racing classes. The start was made off Eastern Point at 11 o'clock in the morning, and the first yacht o'clock in the morning, and the first yacht to finish off White Island whistling buoy was the schooner Corona shortly before 4:30 o'clock.

Conditions were somewhat ffuky for racing. The wind was very light, east-southeast at the start, and kept hauling until it was west of south at the finish. It was very light at the start, increasing later. At no time was it over seven miles an hour and coming in streaks for the most part. The Corona had a big lead in her class at the finish. In classes D and E, schooners, sailing in one division, the Hope Leslie flagship of the Eastern Yacht Club, finished first. The Athene of Class H and the Wasp of Class I raced as one class. By good luck in the streaks of wind the Wasp led the Athene to the Cape Ann whistling buoy. The Athene passed her on the twenty mile run to the finish, but did not have lead enough to save her time allowance. Innsa, but all not never leave the desired to save her time allowance. In Class L the Heron, the Mira and the Cossack had a close race, the Heron finishing first. The Mira, owned by Charles Lane Poor of the New York Yacht Club, finished sec-ond, but goes down farther in the list on corrected time, she being the largest yacht in the class.

The Seawanhaka club was represented by Johnston De Forest's Mystery, H. M. Crane's Merrywing and F. G. Stewart's Nathalie.

There was a strong wind from the south and the ofter and home marks got adrift. This spoiled the race. Cycling Championship Draws a Crews

A good sized crowd attended the bicycle races at Manhattan Beach yesterday and witnessed prime sport.

The chief event, the five mile professional championship, was a rousing race run all in one heat with the men starting in four different lines, the scratch men at the rear. There were twenty-three starters and there different lines, the scratch men at the rear.

There were twenty-three starters and there being intermediate prizes of one "point" for the laps and ten "points" for the leaps and ten "points" for the leaps and ten "points" for the leaders at each mile, the money chasers made a stiff sprint of it all the way. In the last lap what looked much like a new combination developed. Fenn, pulling Kramer and the Bedell brothers, leaped to the front and opened a gap between themselves and the rest of the string, with Frank Cadwell following. Fenn dropped Kramer at the head of the stretch and the quarter rode home in close order, Kramer winning from Menus Bedell. It looked as if Menus Bedell might have beaten Kramer had he tried, but that he was seeking only the second prize.

Carl Lemberg, the Californian chum of Burton Downing, distinguished himself in the half mile amsteur, first by beating out Dove in an extra heat for added starters, and then by winning the final from Burton Downing by a couple of feet.

The back mark men failed to get up in the one mile professional handicap, and quit in the last lap. There was a rattling finish between the first bunch of five and the judges had difficulty in placing the fourth and fifth men. Oliver Dorlon won from Frank Cadwell by a few inches, and the rest of the front bunch were lapped on one another.

There were a number of fails in both the five mile events in which big fields started, but the only rider badly hurt was Mario Rossini, the championship and broke his collarbone. Re arose and started to walk to the training quarters, not knowing he was much hurt, but fell on the way and was carlied to his cot. An ambulace was called and his injuries attended to by the surgeon.

There were twenty-seven starters in the five mile amateur handicap, and Downing and Lemberg made a grand finish of it. They pulled out of the bunch in the turn, and, going to the front on the outside, fough', it out side by side to the tape, Downing winning by about a foot. Schwab was a length and a half back.

Schreiber made a great struggle for the prize, Fenn winning by a few feet.

BEHIND PACE AT VAILSBURG. Nat Butler Defeats Joe Nelson in Straight Heats.

first motor paced race run at Vailsburg in two years was won there yesterday by Nat Butler of Boston, who defeated Joe Nelson of Newark in two straight heats of by Nat Butler of Boston, who defeated Joe Nelson of Newark in two straight heats of five miles each. Nelson had the better of the start in the first heat and led for a mile and a half, when Butler passed him. Soon after Nelson got the lead again and the pair alternated in the lead until the last few laps when Butler went to the front and stayed there, winning by two lengths. In the second heat Nelson lost his pace at 2½ miles but caught it again after riding unpaced for half a lap. When Nelson was shaken off. Butler stopped riding as fast as he had been doing and Nelson almost caught him in the last lap. Butler managed to win, however, by about ten feet. Billington, Ernst, Lee and Rupprecht were on scratch in the mile amateur handicap, and they all qualified for the final except Rupprecht. Ernst paced the others in the final, and the field bunched in the last lap. Billington won from Witting, a 120 yard man, by half a length, Lee being a close third. The big field in the five mile race was lined up in five divisions and the field closed at four miles. Embleton of Westfield, one of the first division, won twelve out of the first thirteen laps and then another, which gave him the special lap prize. Lee was a better sprinter than the Westfield lad and won the race by a length.

> BIG CYCLING RUN. fore Than Seven Hundred in Monroe

Wheelmen's Half Century. Evidence that cycling is far from dead was furnished yesterday when 753 riders started in the second annual half century run of the Monroe Wheelmen of New York. The fact that it was a run of only fifty miles and that there were fifty-five women in it indicated that a run of this size is more popular than a century run, Last year the same club took out 400 riders.

The start yesterday was made at 8:45 o'clock in the morning from 125th street and Eighth avenue. Nearly four hundred of the riders were club members, representing twenty-five organizations and the others were unattached cyclists. R. J. Nagle, president of the Monroe Wheelmen, was grand marshal, while Oscar Frankel, captain of the club, was chief pacemaker, assisted by Ernest Ziegler, and R. J. Nagle, Jr., was courier. The women's division was captained by Mrs. C. B. Ruch, formerly Miss Jane Yatman.

At the head of the division of unattached riders, captained by Charles Rothgesser, rode a one-armed rider and a one-legged wheelman.

Some of the clubs in line were: The Century Road Club Association in two divisions, the Eastern and the Long Island districts. St. George W., Royal W., Brower W., Universal W., Sunset W., Roy W., Lenox W., Century Road Club of America, Village W., Bay View W., Weet Harlem W., Calumet W., Owl A. C., Knickerbocker A. C. W., Braha W., Sunyeet W., Mohawk A. C. W., and the Royal Arcanum W. Evidence that cycling is far from dead was

Atlantic W., Stuyesant A. C. W., and the Royal Prospect W., Mohawk A. C. W., and the Royal Arcanum W

The run was marked by the fine appearance of the riders, the orderly riding and the military preciseness with which the schedule was adhered to. The clubs carried banners, there were buglers and beribboned aides riding at the side or head of the different divisions, and the ensemble made a brave showing.

The route was from 125th street down to Fifty-ninth street back to the East Ninety-ninth street ferry to College Point, to Flushing, to Jamaica, to Bedford Rest, to Coney Island (dinner), to Bedford Rest and back to the clubhouse at 125th street by way of Bedford avenue, the Twenty-third street ferry and Fifth avenue.

The prizes offered for the club showing the largest numbers and making the finest appearance were won as follows:

Century Road Club Association, first prize: St. George W., second prize: Roy W., third prize: Brower W., fourth prize.

NEW YORK AMERICANS WIN FROM THE DETROITS.

Play Off a Postponed Game in Newark
—Sharp Fielding by Conroy, Eiberfeld and Keeler Helps to Land the Victory
—All the Scoring Done in One Inning.

Griffith went into the box himself in New-Griffith went into the box himself in Newark yesterday and his splendid pitching helped the New York Americans beat the Detroits. The game was a championship one, postponed from earlier in the season. Griff had his usual flawless control, and by a judicious use of gray matter outgeneralled the Detroits completely with his artistic method of serving up the slants. There were some gorgeous fielding performances behind Griffith, and the contest was a good one. All the scoring was done in the sixth inning.

With two out, Mullen hit to left for two bases and came in when Keeler booted Barrett's single to right. The New Yorks at once Dougherty and Keeler clipped spanking singles to left. They moved up on Williams's sacrifice. Anderson heaved a fly to McIntyre on which Dougherty came home. Elber-feld walloped safely to centre and Keeler cantered in. Conroy contributed a safe one to short centre, and Elberfeld advanced to third. On Conroy's steal of second Wood threw to Greminger to nip Elberfeld. The ball got away from Greminger, who, how-ever, fell on Elberfeld and held him at the ever, fell on Elberfeld and held him at the base. The umpire allowed Elberfeld to score for the interference.

Conroy made a beautiful play on Carr's bounder in the seventh inning and Elberfeld made a play just as ornate and difficult on Lowe's swipe to left. They were great plays, though rough on the batters. The Detroits were so near and yet so far in the eighth. Greminger hit to the fence for two bases and went to third when Williams erred on Robinson's rap. But Wood flied to Elberfeld and Greminger was run down on Mullen's drive to Griffith. Barrett was tossed out by Conroy.

Keeler made two superb catches in the ninth inning, going different directions for two fly balls. On one of them he slipped when close to the right field stand and got up limping on his hospital leg. That did not prevent him from scooting full tilt after the second fly. The score Brooklyns Defeat Cincinnati, Dillon's Catch Saving the Game. CINCINNATI, July 17 .- One inning full of errors gave the Brooklyns their first victory of the season on the local glounds. Hahn outpitched Poole, and it took a circus catch outpitched Poole, and it took a circus catch by Dillon to save the game. This particular play came in the seventh. With one out Huggins singled, then Seymour connected squarely with the ball. It was speeding toward the home run territory in right when Dillon thrust up his glove and the ball stuck. The rest of the double play was easy. The Brooklyns made all of their runs in the third. Poole doubled and Dobbs was hit. Both scored when Dillon bunted and Hahn's throw got away from Huggins. Dillon reached third and scored on a fly. Ritter singled and took third on Seymour's bad throw-in. He scored on a wild pitch. Strang played in the game to-day after a long lay-off due to injuries. NEW WEIGHT THROWING RECORD Flanagan Throws the 56-Pound 40 Feet 2 Inches at Tipperary Games.

The annual picnic of the Tipperary Men's Association at Celtic Park yesterday was signalized by a new weight throwing record. John Flanagan, the Irish Hercules, slung the 55-pound weight, unlimited run and follow, with both hands, a distance of 40 feet 2 inches. No previous record stood for this style of throwing, so that the figure now becomes the world's best mark. Throwing the weight with unlimited run is practised chiefly in Ireland, where the competitors are restricted to the use only of one hand and the record under these conditions is 38 feet 11 inches, by T. F. Kiely in 1897.

There was a big crowd of lads and lassies from the premier county to watch John in his great act, and after the games they indulged in the "light fantastic" until the weesma' hours.

MOTT HAVEN A. C. GAMES. F. P. Deviin a Dual Winner in the Regular Monthly Competition.

The Mott Haven A. C. held its regular monthly games at the club grounds, 138th street and Third avenue, yesterday, and the seven events were productive of keen competition. F. P. Devlin proved the hero of the day by winning the quarter mile handicap from the 20 yard mark. A few minutes later he turned out and annexed the mile and a half handicap with an allowance of 70 yards. Considerable attention was directed to the broad jump by the presence of H. M. Holten, "the Harlem blond." He performed well, but could secure only second place in the contest.

An unfortunate accident befell J. J. Hogan in his final trial of the broad jump. When he landed his left leg turned under him and the kneecap was dislocated and the joint was badly lacerated. He became unconscious from the shock; but after medical attendance he revived and was taken to his home in a carriage.

50 Yard Run, Handicar—Won by T. Seanlon. 15 feet; J. Lenehan, 12 feet, second; C. A. Conner. 4 feet, third. Time, 5 3-5 seconds.
